GENERAL

Thank You to all the people who made donations in memory of Sylvia Heinemann which are much appreciated. The Leprosy Mission have also written a letter of thanks. Kurt, Janet and Ruth.

Alison and Philip Vale send their thanks to everyone for their cards and good wishes. They also say that if anyone is ever in Dorset to please come and see them. They have a new landline number which is 01258 269973 and Alison's e.mail has changed to vale.alison3@gmail.com

Thank You It seems appropriate that, as we as a church have been thinking of Samuel, a life well lived, we look for a moment at Ron, Gill and Rilla, for the incredible contribution they made to this year's Holiday Club. They and their teams worked tirelessly both before, during and after each day and during the evenings too, to ensure the event was fun, successful and touched the lives of all involved with the love of Christ. They also inspired a large number of teenagers to help with the event. There were also many Church members who took part in the Holiday Club to show the love of God to the families in our villages. It is a tribute to the generosity of HBC that we open our premises in this way to enable our mission to be continued. Thank you all – how wonderful to see our God in such amazing action in this place! Anonymous

Rend Collective who have written and performed many Christian songs including Lighthouse and Be Thou My Vision, are in Cambridge at the Corn Exchange on Sunday 11th February 2018. Accommodation Needed Rebekka Wernicke, (Paul's sister) plans to start at Impington Village College in September. She needs accommodation with a family and her family are wondering if there is anyone connected with the church who might be able to provide such accommodation. If you are able to help please contact Rebekka's father, Frank, by email at fwernicke04@yahoo.co.uk.

Sponsored Bike Ride I did my sponsored bike ride on 22nd July and I managed to do 17 miles! I was very tired at the end of it! Thank you very much to everyone who sponsored me.....so far I have raised £700! Please come and find me in the coffee area after church if you owe me money!! And if you haven't sponsored me yet, it's not too late! Come and see me, or you can donate online at: www.virginmoneygiving.com/ScottPainter
