Welcome Cafe

The welcome cafe on the church premises is restarting on Wednesday 6th November. It will be open every Wednesday from 2.30 till 4.30pm except Christmas Day till Easter. All are welcome. It is a community cafe and open to anybody. We are looking for volunteers to help in the kitchen serving drinks or just to talk to visitors.

If you would like to volunteer please contact me at derekalanwinfield@gmail.com. I will draw up a rota. You will probably be called on roughly once a month.

Happy Birthday to Heather Kilpatrick (24th)

Eco Prayer: As scientists warn us that our forests no longer absorb carbon dioxide as they used to, we pray for our government's response to the climate crisis, for:

the chancellor, as she prepares the forthcoming budget, that it will provide a foundation for the development of a low carbon economy.

- encouragement for those industries that are needed for this transition.
- a willingness for government to support small scale measures as well as headline grabbing mega projects.

New Wardrobe?

SWISH Event! Remember, remember, the 2nd of November! SWISH is a great opportunity to bring no longer wanted clothes - men's, women's and children's, clean and in good condition- and swap them for pre-loved garments. SWISH will be held at STAC . Please drop off garments at noon to allow for sorting and display before doors open to public at 12.45pm. The event ends at 2.15pm.

Together Let's reduce the shocking 2,500 tonnage of clothes that goes into Greater Cambridge landfills. See you there!
