Remembrance Sunday

Like before, we will be running a café in the church hall from 10am for those who will have been at the war memorial service at 9:30am. This will be free to the community and a great way for us to connect with them. Our own Service of Remembrance will start at 10:55am.

We would love cakes for the café! If you are able to bake/buy a cake for the café then please bring this to the church on Friday morning or between 9:30-9:50am on Sunday.

Thank you to all who supported SWISH last Saturday. Overall 840kg of clothes were donated, of which 657kg were swapped. Roughly 17.7 tonnes of CO2 were NOT produced by reusing clothes instead of buying new. Clothes were passed on to help asylum seekers accommodated in Bar Hill, and outer garments were given to The Church of the Good Shepherd in Arbury, to support their Winter Coats project. Local charities, EACH and Emmaus were given the remainder of the clothing with the hope that ensuing sales will boost their fund raising. Priscilla

The flowers today are provided by the flower fund.

- agreement on a new climate finance goal to support poorer nations adapting to the changing climate.
- achieving progress on taking forward the COP28 commitment to transition away from fossil fuels.
- our new government to take a climate leadership role and present ambitious plans and targets for the UK at the conference.
