Photography with a (Re)Purpose

This autumn we are planning a photo display illustrating creative ways in which items of rubbish have been reused / repurposed, and we would like to invite you to contribute to this. Whilst you are out and about - and maybe away on holiday - please look out for interesting examples of where 'rubbish' has been imaginatively repurposed in some way - perhaps as an artwork, or maybe into something that can be used for a purpose - and snap a photo of it. Then email me the photo and a brief description (such as where it is, what it is, any interesting features) and we will put up a display at HBC, probably to coincide with our next repair cafe in October. We would also be delighted to receive any photos on this theme which you have taken in the past. Tony Russell

Sunday 23rd - Brunch Cafe Church

Please arrive from 10am on Sunday 23rd for hot/cold drinks and some yummy treats as we come together for a cafe church service based around Psalm 23. Refreshments will run from 10am and the service will start at about 10:40am. We look forward to seeing you then!

Youth Summer Drop-In

Over the summer, Cambridge Youth for Christ will be running Summer Drop-Ins at No.40 - a chilled, safe space for 11-18-year-olds, right in the city centre. There'll be card games, table football, multiplayer games on the Switch, and new activities to try every Wednesday. They're offering free squash and toast, slushies for just £1 and NEW Summer Specials! Drop in on Wednesday 19th of August 1-5pm, at No.40, St Andrew's Street. Young people can pop in for a bit or stay the whole time.

Message of thanks from the H-Gs:

We would like to say a huge THANK YOU to everyone who helped at our 25th celebration last Saturday.

It was a huge team effort and would not have been possible without you.

Many of our friends and family have said how lovely it was to see our church family working so well together. We had a fantastic day and really enjoyed it - we hope you did too. Love Bart, Zara, Joel & Daniel.
